Edible

JACKSON HOLE

Get a taste of the Tetons during your visit to Jackson Hole. Here's a guide to the best locally made food and fare. jht.guide/edible

Sweet and Savory

► Bovine + Swine (craft sausages and specialty meats) and Cream + Sugar artisanal ice cream are Teton treats made by Fine Dining Restaurant Group that can be found at Bodega in Teton Village and Bin22 in Jackson.

► Nom Nom Donuts and Delish Donuts have provided us with a donut dilemma here: We can't decide which made-from-scratch donuts we love more! Nom Noms are available at Creekside Market. Delish Donuts are sold at their location in Alpine, Wyoming.

► Kate's Real Food Tram Bars are organic, on-the-go energy for foodies, athletes, kids and everyone in between. Find them at Creekside Market. katesrealfood.com

► Café Genevieve's Pig Candy. Your taste buds won't know what hit them when you try this otherworldly concoction of sugar-coated bacon goodness.

► The Bunnery's O.S.M. Granola. Pick up a bag or two of the eatery's trademarked O.S.M. (Oats, Sunflower seeds, Millet) granola, pancake and waffle mix or oatmeal.

Shop for Crops

During summer, explore the variety of fresh produce available at Jackson Hole Farmers Market on Town Square every Saturday morning, or the Jackson Hole People's Market from 4 to 7 pm Wednesdays at the base of Snow King.

Wild West Caffeine

See what all the buzz is about at Jackson Hole Roasters, 50 W Broadway, where the coffee is made in small batches from beans originating worldwide.

Snake River Roasting also has handcrafted coffee available at Persephone and Picnic cafés. It is sold at Lucky's Market as well as at snakeriverroastingco.com.

Fresh Approach Farms

Vertical Harvest is a three-story hydroponic farm located in downtown Jackson. The greenhouse grows fresh produce year-round, allowing local restaurants and grocery stores to offer the fruits of its bounty to customers. Visit Vertical Harvest's retail store for locally sourced food and regionally-crafted products. verticalharvestjackson.com

Keep an eye out for Huidekoper Ranch produce on the menus of many restaurants around Jackson Hole. Huidekoper is a small-scale, bio-intensive farm in Wilson growing healthy food for the community.

LOCAL INSIGHT ANNIE FENN

Physician turned food writer, creator of jacksonholefoodie.com and brainworkskitchen.com

"I LOVE ..."

- ▶ A Saturday morning hike up Snow King, then the farmers market for a Sweet Cheeks Meats Sunnyside Swine breakfast sammy.
- ▶ Dining at Sub Rosa—a ringside seat in The Rose's kitchen as the chefs use local ingredients.
- ▶ Meeting friends at Bin22 for a glass of Barolo and a plate of arancini.
- ▶ En plein air painting anywhere in this valley.
- ▶ The kale salad with a side of falafel at the Stagecoach after mountain biking on Teton Pass. Oh ... and I'll get the truffle fries, too.

Baked Goodies

Persephone Bakery is the home of artisanal, rustic breads and pastries, created using the highest-quality ingredients and traditional processes. You have to try their cinnamon brioche—it makes for a decadent breakfast treat or an amazing midday snack.

Picnic Coffee & Café stocks locals' favorite pastries, handmade by Persephone, as well as its own versions of American classics like Pop-Tarts and whoopie pies. Located at 145 E Broadway (Persephone) and 1110 Maple Way (Picnic).

Meat of the Matter

Meat that comes from one of our local cattle ranches or butchers can be found on the menus of eateries throughout the valley. Stop by one of the butchers or markets, too, such as Sweet Cheeks Meats, to purchase a local farm-to-table beef product. Mead Ranch, Lockhart Cattle Company, Jackson Hole Hereford Ranch, Purely By Chance and Robinson Family Farm and Ranch are some of the names to remember.

Classic Seasonal Menu Items

Jackson Hole goes huckleberry happy in late summer every year when residents scurry to their secret spots to pick these tart cousins to the wild blueberry. Long after the harvesting ends, huckleberries can be found on local menus and in food items throughout the year. Dubbed "purple gold" by old-timers, according to Jackson Hole food writer Annie Fenn, they make great jam, pies, tarts and especially milkshakes.

Morel mushrooms also have their own "hunting season" here. For just a few fleeting weeks in May, Jacksonites forage for these tasty morsels in the forests and near water. Many of the fungi then find their way onto menus in restaurants such as the Snake River Grill, Rendezvous Bistro and Il Villaggio Osteria.

Local LIBATIONS

Savor and then stock your bar with some of Jackson Hole's home-grown libations, which are as heady, wild and glacially pure as Wyoming itself.
